Supporting Evidence: William George Young was arrested on August 10, 2012, for two counts of third degree assault on a police officer, possession of a stolen vehicle and possession of stolen property, Yakima County Superior Court case number 12-1-01258-5.

According to an incident report from the Yakima Police Department, on August 10, 2012, officers observed a vehicle which had been reported stolen, parked near a convenience store. They subsequently made contact with several individuals inside the convenient store and began to question them. During their investigation one of the suspect males, who was subsequently identified as the defendant, struck one of the officers and knocked him to the ground. The defendant then immediately got into a fighting stance and began to fight with another officer as the officer attempted to arrest him. Mr. Young was tased, but continued to resist. He was subsequently subdued by other officers and was taken into custody. After questioning, one of the suspects related the defendant had been driving the stolen vehicle and
